Meers, Thomas Bros. will in a few weeks begin the erection of a splendid two-story brick business house to occupy the entire front of their present storehouse, which has been too dilapidated for further use. Their ground consists of 260x260 feet on the corner of Union and Market streets, and it will afford them ample room for their modicum of storage. They are thinking seriously of converting the upper story into a town hall, to be used for lodges, entertainments, speakings and general gatherings. This project very conceivable, for Hartford needs and would well support a large room for this purpose.

Mr. W. M. Lakin, editor of the Beaver Dam Gleaner, is in charge of securing the position of organizer for the Prohibitionists in Kentucky. Mr. Lakin has been a prominent worker for the cause of Prohibition, and his services could be selected for the management of its forces in the State. He has done much for his party in this county and in the Fourth Congressional District and is a man of energy and popularity. By his personal efforts he has nearly gained many votes in this section of country and should he be elected to represent the interests of the Prohibitionists in this State, the affairs of that party will be in excellent hands.

A Most Successful Surgeon.

In the death of Dr. J. C. Pendleton at Hartford, the medical profession of the Green river country loses one of its brightest lights. If he had chosen to live elsewhere than in a little country town, he would have been famous and wealthy. Dr. Pendleton was a man of a thorough knowledge of medicine, but he came as nearly up to that mark as any physician in the country without regard to the extent of his practice. In surgery he was an adept, and had performed operations on many other countries in the world. From saving a man's life by "setting" a broken neck to the minor operations of every day practice, he had done almost everything and his success was wonderful.

Resolutions.

Adopted by the Ohio County Medical Association upon the death of Dr. John E. Pendleton:

At a regular meeting of the Ohio County Medical Society, to take proper action in regard to the death of our co-worker, Dr. John E. Pendleton, Drs. J. T. Miller and J. S. Morton made the following resolutions:

"Dr. J. E. Pendleton was born in Washington, Ky., Sept. 1, 1820, and came to this county about twenty years of age, studied medicine with Dr. W. J. Bryan; was graduate of Jefferson College in 1844, and located in Hartford to practice his profession. In 1857, he took a post graduate course of lectures at the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia.

"At the beginning of the late Civil War, he entered the Confederate Army as Captain, but later was Regimental Brigade and Division Surgeon respectively. He died in his office in the city, Dr. J. D. Madlock, appointed a committee on resolutions, which reported as follows:

"Waukesha, has it pleased an all wise Being to call me home? I leave my much esteemed friends here to be a thorough investigation of all the acts and faults of his cause, and usually the correct decision is made, but if Judge Owen were, and no man is infallible, it is the skill and ability to lead men to the truth. He is a clear and decided man in his opinions, and was ever ready to give encouragement to those in the struggling practitioner and patient, therefore be it

"That we, the people deplore the death of my much loved and honored, Dr. John E. Pendleton, which occurred on the 31st of January, 1897, and that we sustained a great loss in his death."

Resolutions and the sympathies of the family in their great and irreparable loss, and tender our sympathies in their bereavement.

Hartford, 3rd, That we furnish a copy of this resolution to the family, and one to the press, and that they be spread with the minutes upon the record book of our Society.

Notice.

All parties interested in the estate of Dr. J. C. Pendleton, and his wife, or account or otherwise, are hereby notified that they can, if they will, be admitted to call on me to call on all parties interested in this case, and to be heard before this notice is headed within a reasonable time, I shall be compelled in accordance with the law to file a copy of Dr. Pendleton's estate, to place his claims in the hands of an officer for distribution.

Dr. D. E. Miller and wife left for Louisville last Saturday, where Mr. Miller goes to complete his course of study in the Kentucky School of Medicine.

Prof. Elmo Wilson closed a successful school on No Creek last Friday. The event was made the occasion of a delightful supper, which was highly enjoyed by all present.

Mr. J. W. Lewis, a former well known citizen of Hartford, died at home in Boston last Wednesday and his remains were brought to Hartford and interred in Oakwood cemetery.

Every time we go to Louisville for a week we stay at the Fine Avenue Hotel. For a week we have a room about a hundred dollars and good attention, there is nothing better to be found than the Fifth Avenue, Louisville.

Mr. Thomas Phillips, Whiteville, called to see us in white in town last Thursday.

Mrs. J. A. Magan, J. C. Magan and Henry Magan called to see us one day last week.

Come and see our line of Shoes. We guarantee our prices to be the lowest on first-class goods. Scribble.

We want to close out our Cloaks, come get one at your own price and Overcoat half price. Carson & Co.

Mr. Robert Canachis, of near Rockester, died on the 2d inst., and was buried at Hunterville, Ky.

We handle the best wagons, best buggies and best dice harness in the market. J. H. PATTON & CO., Hartford, Ky.

Mrs. J. W. Bonewell and Jasper Havens, Arnold, and Geo. G. Hamilton, Adairburg, called to see us Monday.

Misses C. E. Morrison and J. H. Spurrier visited friends and relatives in the Hayesville neighborhood a few days last week.

Mr. John Johnson and Miss Myra Ambrose were married in the presence of a large congregation at Marvin Chapel shared by Rev. Roland. The wedding was performed by V. B. Ferguson and Prof. Dr. D. E. Miller, and Rev. Mrs. Ode O'Dea. Mr. Johnson is a nice and industrious young man, while Miss Ambrose is one of Ohio country pretties young ladies. May their lives always be as bright as the sun that shone on their wedding day is the wish of the writer.

Yours truly,
W. F. SCHAFER.
